

THE HOUSE OF LOVE (AND JAZZ)

ASHLAND'S RENAISSANCE?

GUIDE TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS

END-OF-SUMMER
COCKTAILS

Richmond

magazine

BEST WORST '13

Best TEDxRVA Speaker

Katherine Wintsch

Native Richmonder Katherine Wintsch was honored to be on the TEDx stage in her hometown — but she was also terrified. “It was a real coming-out moment for me,” says Wintsch, founder of The Mom Complex, a division of the Martin Agency that consults on marketing to mothers. “To stand on the stage in front of hundreds of people and admit my self-doubts as a mother — being vulnerable is not something I do very well. On top of that, I chose to do it in spoken-verse poetry.”

2. John S. Blake

3. (Tie) Noah Kim and Michael Birch Pierce

Best Enjoyable Night Out

Joe's Inn

205 N. Shields Ave., 355-2282

Katie Price, general manager at Joe's Inn for a decade, says that although it's been a favorite gathering place for 60 years, people still have trouble finding Joe's. “I've had to give so many people directions,” she says. The success is in a balance of adding new things but not getting rid of old favorites. “Knowing, for example, to keep the hamburger steak in the computer, because three of our regulars want it.”

2. Byrd Theatre

3. Sidewalk Café

226
CATEGORIES!
BEST PIE, WORST
MOMENTS AND MORE

